SENIOR Spotlight

BEN INGEGNERI

When I first met Ben, an incoming freshman, I knew immediately that he would leave his mark on Bishop Feehan, and without question, he has done just that! He exudes both a boundless energy and a thoughtful depth. From his unforgettable performances on stage, to his enthusiastic iPad presentations, to his commitment to Campus Ministry and PAWS, Ben has shared his talents, intelligence, and faith. Most noticeable, however, is the joy he consistently communicates, no matter what the activity at hand. Ben has been a gift to Feehan because he loves and embraces life, thereby encouraging all of us to do the same. He has spread his smile and kindness throughout every corner of this school. In college and beyond, Ben will no doubt imprint himself on the hearts of all those blessed enough to know this wonderful young man!

-Mrs. Tyler

James (Chase) Townsend truly epitomizes the three leaves of the Feehan shamrock: sanctity, scholarship, and sportsmanship. He is a leader both inside and outside of the classroom. His commitment to PAWS (Prayer, Adoration, Worship through Song) is central to his identity, and his willingness to share his faith, constant demonstrations of compassion toward others and his overall sense of humility make him an outstanding member of the senior class. As co-president of the campus ministry program, Chase is a dedicated volunteer who believes in giving back to his school, church, and the community. In the classroom, Chase possesses a good inquiring mind; he is engaged, contributes thoughtful insights, and comes to class willing to work hard each day. As an athlete, soccer is his passion. What makes Chase so special is his upbeat personality, his positive attitude, and his strong faith. He is able to balance academics, soccer, personal relationships, family, and community service. He is a young man of integrity with a strong moral compass and set of values. Chase describes himself as a "dedicated soccer player, student, brother and friend". He is an exceptional, humble Christian young man and a worthy recipient of a senior spotlight.

-Mrs. O'Boy

CHASE TOWNSEND

TIM LEGG

Tim Legg exemplifies the best that Bishop Feehan offers in the dimensions of scholarship, sportsmanship and sanctity. His considerable academic prowess is the fruit of one who is unfailingly diligent and engaged, and whose classroom comments often reveal deep reflection and extraordinary insight. Tim has represented his school in cross country and winter and spring track and he has done so with extraordinary grace and perseverance – his leadership skills were recognized through his selection as captain of the cross country team. Tim's involvement in service activities expresses a deep and lively Christian faith and an innate sense of compassion for the underprivileged. His volunteerism includes helping at the House of Compassion, St. Joseph's Food Pantry and at the English Language Learners Summer Camp. Tim also volunteers at St. Mary-Sacred Heart School through participation in the school's Social Justice/Christian Service Internship Course; anyone who knows Tim Legg would agree that we have been graced by his presence. -Deacon Joe

Since joining my freshman boys soccer team, Ryan's leadership qualities have been apparent to both his coaches and teammates, who look up to Ryan for his optimistic attitude. Ryan's greatest gift is his ability to make others laugh. He does not take himself too seriously and is always willing to poke fun at himself to lighten the mood. He never hesitates to say hello or share his infectious smile when passing in the hallways. Ryan truly leads by example; he is a young man of integrity who refuses to compromise his beliefs in order to conform. The success of every rally, activity, and dance this year has been a product of his dedication and enthusiasm as Student Council Treasurer. Ryan embodies the school spirit that makes Feehan such a uniquely special place. He has earned my utmost respect as a leader who never draws attention to himself despite his many talents. Ryan is a genuine, humble, and caring individual who exemplifies the Feehan ideals of sanctity, scholarship, and sportsmanship unlike any other student. -Mr. Crossen

RYAN MCSWEENEY

LAUREN BERUBE

Lauren is a very special person who relates both with her peers and instructors at a very high level. In all my years of teaching, I have not seen a student who was so sensitive to the needs of others. For example, Lauren has spent the last two years, every Tuesday, organizing students to go to the House of Compassion to feed, and care for AIDS patients and maintain the property. Last year, when the seniors lost interest, Lauren took over and organized the students through Facebook. Lauren is also involved in many organizations inside and outside school. She is considered one of the best tutors at BFHS.

-Mr. Desjardins

How do we define "Feehan Spirit"? To me, part of that definition has to include Ellie Biscoe. When I take a look at her school involvement over four years I wonder how she has had time – Student Council, Honor Roll, CCD Teacher, Volleyball, Basketball, Cross Country, Lacrosse, Project Unite, Peer Ministry, Santa Shop and a very vocal member of the Pit Crew/12th Man spirit section. Hardworking, dedicated, enthusiastic and giving are just a few of the adjectives her moderators, coaches and teachers have used to describe her. She always seems to be saying – "How can I help?" "What can I take care of?"

When I think of Ellie I think of a quote of Winston Churchill's – "We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give." Ellie is certainly destined for a wonderful life.

The things and moments we have here,
Never forgotten, but never again the same,
Christ in ourselves and others, what is there to fear?
The demons inside us, all flown, when the light came

The things, this weekend we learn,
Will always let us discern
Christ is present in all others
All of our sisters and brothers
Nothing can break this bond we hold,
Our friends and family, community of love,
The remembrance of stories told,
Let go your soul and self, a free dove

There are people out there who love you for you,
Not only for what you do for them,
Not only for the mask you wear,
People love you, they do, they do, I swear
Now look at yourself, you neighbor, me,
Tell me, what do you see?
A laugh, a smile? A tear, a frown?
They could be happy, they could be down

Now I have a favor of you all to ask,
Take a minute and take off your mask,
Show us who you truly are,
Shine bright like a beautiful star,
Because you know what I think we'll see?
A person of immeasurable worth

We all have our dark, all have our light,
Give us the gift of sight, so that we may see,
That positivity is the key
Show a positive attitude towards life,
Through any hurt or strife,
Show others that you can love, that you can care,
But also tell me your story, share.
Strive for your true North, Work towards your ideals,
Show us your true worth,
For when we see Christ in you,
We will support you, it's real
Be kind to others, Be positive, Show Respect
The things and moments we have here,
Never forgotten, but never again the same,
Christ in ourselves and others, what is there to fear?
The demons inside us, all flown, when the light came
You are good enough,
Stay Happy,
Stay True,
No one is better than you

In the end we will be measured and remembered by things that are intangible: the wake of kindness we left in our passing, the love we imparted in people's lives, the compassion we showed when they were in need. Be an instigator of hope, an agent of peace, a liberator of laughter, and transmitter of light. Live to leave what truly lasts. In the end it is all that really matters. (Steven Charleston)

Somewhere over the rainbow bluebirds fl y
And the dreams that you dream of Dreams really do come true

Someday, I wish upon a star
Wake up where the clouds are far behind me
Where trouble melts like lemon drops
High above the chimney top
That's where you'll find me

Well, I see trees of green and red roses too
I'll watch them bloom for me and you
And I think to myself
What a wonderful world

Lauren

In many ways, it's hard to believe your high school days are behind you. You are no longer our little girl, and the growth we've witnessed in you as a person, classmate, teammate, friend and daughter has been rewarding and fulfilling, but you have so much more to see, to do, and to accomplish. As you enter the next phase of your life, always remember that we love you, are proud of you and excited to see where your journey will take you. Enjoy the ride, and if you need anything, other than cash, we are only a phone call away.
